

KARA WALKER

A BLACK HOLE IS EVERYTHING A STAR LONGS TO BE

OCTOBER 15, 2021– JANUARY 16, 2022

PROGRAM OF THE EXHIBITION

The following events will be held in English.

The Schirn, in cooperation with various protagonists in the German art and cultural scene, has put together an extensive program to accompany the exhibition by Kara Walker. At the Artist Talk on October 16, Kara Walker enters into conversation with Yasmil Raymond, rector of the Städelschule and co-curator of the first Kara Walker retrospective at the Walker Art Center, Minneapolis (2007). Noura Johnson, an art historian and assistant curator at the Kunstmuseum Basel, speaks about Kara Walker's archive. Further information about the complete exhibition program is available at www.schirn.de/en.
